REGISTRATION NOW:

ALS 2000

Leadership for Sustainability

An interdisciplinary, hands-on class with the experiences to launch your career as a change agent for the community, campus, and planet.

Spring: Tuesdays, 1:25pm-4:10pm

Learn to develop leadership skills, campaigns and communication that lead to lasting sustainable behavior change. This class uses Cornell as a living laboratory for community behavior change. Open to all students—perfect for those people who want to change the world.

REASONS TO JOIN

- Leadership experience
- Climate change literacy
- Education in environmental and social topics
- Experience working with students, staff & faculty
- Learn to plan events and programs
- Earn 3 academic credits

To learn more, contact the Campus Sustainability Office:

sustainability@cornell.edu